Dear Bobby, Denise, and Phillip, I am deeply sorry to hear about the loss of your mother. As you know, Geneva and I worked together for over ten years at K-Mart. Our relationship started off as mere acquaintances, but quickly blossomed into a lifelong friendship. She was a person with a huge heart and someone I had always admired. As I think back on the many memories that we shared, one keeps coming back to my mind....Her smile and unique laugh. I will miss her greatly. Sincerely, Cheryl Brewster

My condolences to Geneva's family on her passing. Geneva and I grew up 3 blocks from each other in Metairie, attended the same schools. I didn't see her for many years after high school graduation as everyone was going in different directions. I last saw her at the 50th Metairie High School Reunion in 2003. She was as pretty and chipper as ever. I have good memories of our friendship to this day....My best regards to all her family...Carol Cosgrove-Ordes.
