To the family of Ms. Elaine Anglin: Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. Death is going to happen to all of us; it is a final action that will happen to all of us. God gives us the hope of seeing our loved ones again. Jesus Christ gave way to tears when he lost his friend Lazarus even though he was a perfect man. He knew he had the power to bring Lazarus back to life but it didn't matter to him because he had the same feelings that we experience when we loose a loved one. Prayer helps all of us at this time in our lives. Prayer changes things and God will gives us his help in time. I hope I've given you some comforting words to help you cope with your loss. From a very sincere Bible student. d

Christie, Paul and Kemmy, Words cannot express how sad we are for each of you. Your mother was an amazing woman who touched every life she came in contact with. Her sweet spirit was like none other, and she inspired me to be a better mother, friend, and Christian. I am so thankful that she was a part of my life and loved me like family. Praying that you are comforted in your memories and find peace in knowing she is with God. Love, Ron, Kristie, Ella and Evan Bergeron

Dear Christie, Lee and Jordan, We are so sorry for your loss. Your mom was a special lady and "you" were her hero for taking care of her. She knows how much you all loved her and she will live on in your memories. I know it is hard, but she will be waiting for you in heaven and she lives on through you, so make her proud. Let me know if you need any thing at all, we are only 2 doors down. (((HUGS))) to all of you. The Paille Family: John, Tara, Alex, Luke & Catherine
