My deepest sympathies to Theresa's family in your great loss. My sisters in Christ and prayer partners on Holy Ground also send their condolences. Gina and Justin, I know this is going to be a difficult time for you and I'm praying the God of all comfort will comfort you. My dear friend, I feel bereft of a precious friend. How could I not when you have endeared yourself to me and so many with your delightful personality, gentle nature, sweet spirit and ready smile. I will sorely miss our seasonal phone calls and our shared birthday calls full of laughter and silliness. Until we see each other again and rejoice in worshipping our thrice holy Lord, I will always cherish the memory of our friendship. Janine

So many wonderful memories of Theresa's gentle manner and perpetual smile. She loved to laugh and was quick to share a funny story. It's great to think of her reunited with John but devastating to realize how much she'll be missed down here.

Theresa, I remember the year I was your secret pal, & you were my secret pal. We didn't know that until we handed each other our gifts at the reveal party. It bonded us, the bond isn't broken, it's still there. I'll miss you so much.

Gina and Kelly, I will never forget the day we did chemo school for Ms. Theresa, and how the two of you would say things to make her laugh and the love that you all shared for each other. It was truly amazing to see the support and love you both shared for your mother. Please know my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family during the coming days for you to have peace and continue to feel your mother's love.
