Guess I got what I deserve
Kept you waiting there too long, my love
All that time without a word
Didn't know you'd think that I'd forget
Or I'd regret
Special love I had for you
My baby blue. (Pete Ham)1982:
Sue, promise me you'll sing Whiter Shade of Pale at my funeral and you'll sing Baby Blue if I'm buried.
I did, on both counts. I still do..

16 years in just a few days. I have your globe and look at it, remembering those MCI cards we burned through while you were in Europe. It swallowed one of the dowel pins, so I got more. I don't ever hear Whiter Shade of Pale without wiping my eyes. I hear Baby Blue and still see all of us (when you were there) beating the tables at the drum solos at Two Guys. You completed me. That part will keep missing until my soul leaves my body and I pray to GOD that you finally came around and accepted the grace and the save.
I miss you, Ethel, Lucy.

Ethel, I'm coming to see you next week. I won't wear mascara; you didn't like it when I cried and my mascara ran. I talk to your picture on my fridge door almost every day. I miss you so much. I'll bring the pink for you when I see you. This visit's gonna be a real sit-downer. Lucy

I want to see Tracy's tribute. I have known her since we were teenagers & I've known her mom just as long please let all know how very, very much I loved her all these years & the thought of the world without her deeply hurts my soul. Please... Thanks Stephen (that's what she always called me, not Steve)

Ray, I am so sorry to hear of your loss. May God give you strength during this difficult time. Your mom had told me that you were so devoted and kind to Tracey. It takes a strong person to take care of her as you did. You should be proud of that. We are saying special prayers for you. Teri and family
