Dear Mike, Gerri and Tommy, Please know that our thoughts and prayers are with you and the rest of the family. Jeff and Stephen asked about Aunt Mary often and were so saddened to learn that she passed away. Aunt Mary was so very special to me. I will forever miss and very much cherish the times I spent with her. She was more than a Godmother to me. She was like a second mother. You could always count on a beautiful smile and positive attitude from Aunt Mary. She is certainly at peace in heaven now. Even though I was out of town this past week, I prayed for her and for you each and every day. I pray now that you find solace knowing that so many others are thinking of you and praying for you as well. Love, Debbie
