Kim , You wrote this to me many years ago and I've always treasured it . You are no longer here on this earth but you knew that I've felt the same way while you were . I'd like to share this with everyone now so that they can see just how close we were . I know you'd want me to . I love you and will miss you terribly . No one knows the closeness we shared . Through the good times and the bad.....YOU WERE / ARE STILL MY SISTER ! Much love , Your Little Sister , Boo My Sister , My Friend
The love shared between sisters grows stronger with each day . Over a lifetime of happiness , friendship and support , sisters become inseparable ~ like beauty and a rose . Love , Your Sister , ~ Kimberly ~ circa 1980

Dear Barnickel Family, Although I didn't know Mrs. Barnickel, I would like to extend my deepest condolences to your family on your loss. May you find peace and comfort in the Bible and all that it promises. John 5:28,29 "Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out."
