Libby & family, I am so sorry to hear that Clara has left us. May God bless and keep you close during this time. Clara's grandmother, Lizzie, and my grandmother, Dora Ott were sisters, I think. I am Olga Ott Kinlaw's son, Jimmy Kinlaw. I remember you all visiting us at our grandmother's place in Mt Hermon. You all were happy and laughing all the time. But I think Clara beat you all. I'll always remember your visits. It was a happy time. God bless.

Dear Libby and family. During the past few years our family has endured much grief. I know you will miss Clara dearly. But we can be encouraged by the Lord's words in John 16:22. "Now is your time of grief, but I will see you again, and you will rejoice, and no one will take away your joy." May God bless you and comfort you as only He can.

Libby & family I am so sorry for your loss. The death of loved one is such a painful time. Only Jehovah truly understand the depth of pain and offers comfort and hope to each of us at this most difficult time. Please read John 11:24-27. Psalm 37:29. Psalm 83:18. Keep the memories alive as the years go by. I lost my husband on 2/11/12. Hope this thought and scriptures bring comfort to your heart as they have mine during this time of sadness.

Clara was a sweet, fun-loving person. Our mothers were twin sisters. Although I didn't get to see her often, it is comforting to know that she is present with the Lord in Paradise.
