Joan, I along with my daughter Denise would like to express our sympathy for the lost of your husband. What a great man and friend. Hope you do well and only time will heal everything. All those shrimping trips with Jack, what a blast. Only remeber the good times and you will get thru these hard time in your life. After losing Doris ,I know you can do it. Please past our condolences to your family. I am recovering from surgery or I would be there. Of course I can not drive and it wouyld be hard for me to get to the services. All of our Love to You and Your Family. Joe Lumetta and Denise McManus
