I delivered Meals on Wheels to Mrs. Berkeley for many years. We lost touch after Katrina when they changed my route but have thought of her often. She was a lovely lady and a joy to see every week. She was always interested in what was going on in my life. I will always remember her big white car with the baby blue leather..it was as long as a bus! Please accept my condolences and know that your Mom is kicking up her heels in heaven. My prayers are with you.

Dear Sandra & Barbara, What a 'beautiful' picture of your mom. It brought back memories just seeing her. I think of you more often than you know. May you both, along with your families, find comfort in loving memories. With my deepest sympathy, Love, MJ
