What a dear sweet lady....I will miss her kindness. I was blessed to have met her, her husband, and son, Louis/Charlie as my neighbors many years ago. She made me feel like I was special and happy to see me through the years. God bless your family who love/loved you so.

Aunt Keenie (Kathleen)I just wanted to send my condolences for the loss of your mother. I remember her growing up and Amelia visiting her and your father when they lived across from the Winn Dixie in Covington. Send my sympathies to Tom and family. Love, Jon

Dear Kathleen, Louis and the grandchildren (my precious nephews and nieces) of Mrs. Ruth: She was a gracious Christian lady who will be missed by all who knew her, especially by you who loved her dearly and consistently showed your love in myriad ways. How blessed she is now to have gone to her Heavenly reward, to be with Jesus and her beloved Charlie and other relatives, whole again! May the comfort of the Holy Spirit fill the void left by this loss. Sincerely, Mary and Jim
