Dear Cathy and family, I was so sorry to hear of Aaron's passing...much too young. (My mother called me after seeing it in the N.O. newspaper). He was the first teenager in Calvary Temple, and of course, you two were married there, so I have lots of fond memories of you both and also your children. I am especially thankful for the phonecalls you made to me nearly each year at the time of Bill's death at Easter. It always warmed my heart to be remembered. Now my prayers are with you that the Lord will comfort you and sustain you as only He can. Much love and prayers, Paulette Mason Bilderback
