Kaden misses you too Daddy....he talks about you all the time. He can't wait to see you in the Paradise. You would be so proud of him. He reminds me of you in so many ways. Ya'll would be (and will be) so close. Thank you for being such a wonderful Daddy.... and thank you for all you've done for me. I will always love you so, so very much. My sweet little daddy. I miss you more than I could ever express in words. I think of you every day. I'm very sorry that you are not here with us right now. And I'm so sorry you can't see the progress mommy has made. You would be so happy! I pray to Jehovah every day for Him to keep you in His memory. I have full confidence that He has, and will. I look at your pictures everyday that are in my home, and in my office. I can't wait to see you again my sweet daddy. When Jehovah resurrects you, you will never again have pain. I long for that time. I will see you very soon. I'm very excited about seeing you young and vibrant! The resurrection has never been so real to me as it has since Thursday, May 11, 2006. I love you so much my sweet, sweet little daddy. I miss hearing your voice, and seeing you laugh. You are truly the best person I have known. Our family is not the same without you, daddy. And we won't be the same, until we have you back. It won't be long.

Tonya and Bruce, I am so very sorry for the loss of your Dad, Quinnon. I know he will be missed by all his family and I send my condolences on to them. Even though I only met your father that one time when I came out to his home to discuss selling it, I know how special he was to each of you. After my Mom's death in May 2005 it is easier for me to understand how hard the death of a parent is to bear. Much love! Darlene Richmond 957-5795 Cell
