William H. Brugmann, Jr.

JUL 8, 1923 - JAN 16, 2014

On January 16, 2014, William H. Brugmann, Jr. went to his eternal rest. Bill was born in Rutland, VT and grew up in New Jersey. He graduated from Tenafly High School. Bill served with the 8th Armored Division in Europe during WW II. He received his BS degree in chemistry from the University of Virginia. While at UVA, Bill was a member of ODK, The Raven Society, Sig Ep fraternity, and lettered in baseball. Bill's professional career was with Standard Oil, ESSO, Humble Oil, and Exxon. In retirement, Bill was an avid collector of antique glass. He loved to play golf, tennis and garden.

Bill was preceded in death by his parents William H. Brugmann, Sr. and Sarita Pattison Brugmann, siblings Betty Collings, Peggy Wright, James Brugmann and his loving wife of 60 years Jeanne Brugmann.

Bill is survived by his son William L. and wife Carolyn, grandchildren Dr. William B. Brugmann, Dr. Bonnie Boudreaux (Darren) and sister in law Kathy Rosenbaum (Alan).

Bill was interned with Jeanne at Pinecrest Memorial Gardens in Covington, LA. The family would like to thank Hammond Nursing Home and Generations Hospice for the loving care they provided Bill in his last years.

All services were private.

I was given the pleasure of meeting your parents, when I was working @ Baldwin Motors w/ my Daddy, Kenny. I have many years of memories taking care of them and their vehicles (Lincolns). Just like my Daddy, memories keep them alive in our hearts forever.
