although my wife Peggy and I did not know Kathy very well, she was so kind to us on several occasions. She took the time to select and loan Peggy several of her jewelry pieces for the wedding of her son. She gave me a very nice walker when I was battling multiple myeloma at Tulane Cancer Center and could not walk very well. Her kindness will always be remembered by us and we stayed up to date on her struggle through my sister Julie O'Connor. May GOD care for her as one of HIS new angels.
