Marjorie Mastio Calato

SEP 11, 1927 - OCT 9, 2012

Marjorie Mastio Calato passed away Tuesday, October 9, 2012. She was born September 11, 1927 in New Orleans to the late Adam Charles and Ruth Murray Mastio and has been a resident of Folsom for more than 30 years. She worked as an office manager for the U.S. Treasury Department in New Orleans. After her retirement from the Federal Government, she managed the offices and finances for many years with Fr. Jonathan at St. John the Baptist Catholic Church in Folsom. The beloved wife of the late Henry J. Calato, she was loved and cared for by a number of dear friends. Fr. Jonathan Dufrange, Dennis Alexander, Ronnie and Faye Ponthieux, Donald and Pat Mastio survive her, will continue to pray and participate in masses said on her behalf.

Relatives and friends of the family are invited to attend the funeral mass at 10:00 AM on Thursday, October 11, 2012 at St. Benedict Catholic Church, 20307 Smith Rd. Covington, LA 70435.

Visitation will begin Thursday at 9:00 AM.

In lieu of flowers, masses preferred.

I am so sorry to hear of Ms. Marjorie's passing. I waited on Ms. Marjorie and Mr. Henry while working at a little diner in Covington. They were two of my very favorite customers. I will always remember them both very fondly. God Bless

Dear Family, I wanted to express my deepest sympathy and share with you that death isn't the end nor a path to heaven. Jesus demonstrated that when he resurrected Lazarus while he was on earth. John 11 shows when Jesus heard of Lazarus' death, he said: "Lazarus has falling asleep and I'm going to awaken him". Notice that Jesus didn't say: Lazarus went to heaven to be with God. Instead, he said "Lazarus has fallen asleep or has died and I am going to awaken him ". And to prove his point, Jesus asked to be taken to the grave where he was buried and when he got there, he called Lazarus, who came out from the grave like he was never dead. What Jesus did then flatly refutes the idea that the dead are in heaven and teaches us that he'll bring the dead back to life when he rules the earth as King of God's Heavenly Kingdom. (Daniel 7: 13 and 14); (Daniel 2:44) which is what he promises to do in John 5: 28. When that time comes, the following Scriptures highlight some of the things Jesus will do to benefit mankind. For comfort, please read them in your own Bible: (Isaiah 33:24); (Job 33:25); (Psalms 46: 9 and 10); (Isaiah 2: 4); (Psalms 37: 9-11 and 29); (Revelation 21: 3 and 4); (John 5: 28 and 29).
