Mom, the remainder of my days will be filled with all my memories and love for you. So much fun and laughter, warmth and caring for everyone, respect for people and love for God and Jesus, concern for family, the list could go on forever. You gave me the tools I needed to handle life, how to be a strong southern woman - a steel magnolia. You lived life fearless and with integrity. You adopted two unwanted babies, one that you knew would be handicapped, and put your whole heart, soul and love into raising us fearlessly and without hesitation, even through the worst hardships imaginable. I thank you for letting God guide you to us. You saved our lives. And what a wonderful stepfather you provided for Doug and I. I learned from you how to respect and treat a husband, what an amazing marriage you had. You always told me that being a mother and grandmother were the BEST days of your life. I wouldn't know how to be a mawmaw without you. I just know that I promise you to live the rest of my days without fear, stay in touch with family and friends, follow God's commandments and keep my "Chin up - (all those close to my Mom know how to finish this)". Mom, you are gone from our sight, but NEVER, EVER forgotten. I miss you and love you, your daughter Retta.

My first memory of Aunt Lolita was getting together in her kitchen to bake cookies with my mother and Julie! She had a warm and embracing voice, and was fun with a twinkle in her eyes. Every time I saw her that twinkle was always in her eyes - along with her smile! That smile and those twinkling eyes will be missed by so many.

Sure going to miss my Old Fart. Yes, this was a nickname I gave to her. I would call and when Cal answered the phone I would say, where is the Old Fart. She would always laugh. Anyway Sis, Your brother Gary and I will always, always miss you and think about you everyday. Your brother is going to be lost without you. He would always stop every morning and have coffee with Cal and check on her and go aggravate her in her room. The only thing we are happy about is that you are not suffering anymore. Look for Gary because he will be your grave site with a cup of coffee for you every morning. We LOVE YOU AND WILL MISS YOU. GARY AND LINDA MATHAS

My heart is with you today as you celebrate the life of a wonderful person, Aunt Lolita. As a child, I always enjoyed visiting her. I remember the way she lit up her home with a vibrant, welcoming personality. She greeted everyone by name and made them feel like the most important guest to cross her threshold. Her beautiful smile and wonderful sense of humor will be missed.

Oh my! Sweet memories have been sweeping through my mind these last 2 weeks. Auntie, you were the best, we had some good times when you caravanned to Texas with Nanny and friends in tow. We cooked, shopped and mostly laughed, so many laughs! Uncle Cal, LJ told me yesterday that out of all the people he knew, YOU were so devoted to Aunt Lolita, he said it showed, never has he seen that in a married couple as much as your's. We will miss Aunt Lolita forever, but we have to busy ourselves and carry out the legacy that she left us. Love, laugh and be happy. With much love, Linda

From the first moment I met her I knew there would be a bond. She love her husband Calvin with all the love to make their marriage very special. He was her best friend and spouse. They enjoyed life to the fullest and traveled while young enough to enjoy. With Ma Lita, Dad, Doug, Loretta, Debbie, Calvin and myself, we had many of weekends full of laughter and fun. What a blessed home. Her personality is so unique, you can't deny it. Willing to give her all to whomever is in need. She brightened anyones day with her smile. She love her children so deeply and even more love came as a grandmother. She lived for those grandchildren. Ma Lita was a very crafty women who inspired creativity out of you that you didn't know you had. Weekends were spent making things, planting in the garden and for sure, cooking up something good. Her kitchen was always open to first greet you with a warm cup of coffee and some of her cookies. Does the name " Chocolate Crinkles" mean anything to you? A holiday stable in her home along with other cookies and pies. Dad loved her cooking It was sad to see someone so full of life lose the battle of earthly life, my heart aches for the times gone but rejoices that you are in Heaven in a young body celebrating with angels before you. May God Rest in your Soul. Your loving Step Daughter, Julie Campeaux Boyer
