My condolences and prays goes out to you and your family on your loss. Only from losing my mom do I know how you feel, the void is painful and the heart is aching. There are no words that I can say that will take the pain away but God will give you peace in your heart knowing that she doesn't have to suffer anymore. She is pain free and in Heaven with him and the rest of her family. Know this Gina even though you can't see her anymore she is with you always. She hears you prays and is right there everytime you talk to her. She is your guardian angel on your shoulder who knows what a wonderful daughter you have been. Love you, Cynthia

You gave me life, nurtured and cared for me, and when you felt the time was right, you set me free. You simply took your life in stride, no questions asked, embracing the happy moments along with the sad, accepting all things for what they they were. That was your way. I didn't always understand or appreciate everything you did. I was a child with my own innocent perception of the world. Now, as a grown-up, I can reflect with such admiration and respect on the wonderful woman and mother you were. You stood with courage to meet the responsibilities that fell upon you, and sacrificed so much for the love of your children. What you have accomplished is more than you will ever realize. When I think of all that you have done for our family and all the love you have so generously poured from your heart, I feel humbled. There will never be enough gratitude to offer to you or a means to repay you. But my heart will always be filled with the joy of knowing your love. It is the most precious gift I have ever received, for it is the one you have so wisely taught me to set free and share with others. I love you for being a caring person, a remarkable woman, and an exceptional mother. This love that you have given.....will forever live in me. I LOVE YOU MOM~ R.I.P Gina Lee

My condolences to the family, I did not get to ever meet any of Sue's children but have enjoyed getting emails from some of them. The last time I saw Sue was when they lived in Tacoma the year I was in the 8th grade. Ronnie was my best friend,(cousin) that whole year and Sue was such a sweet quite girl and I really missed all of them when they moved. Raymond was younger then me and Michael was only 3 years old. We all had fun together even if it was a short time spent together. I wish distance did not tear our relationship apart, after all we are family but sometimes that happens. I want all of you to know you are in my prayers and I know some of you have gone through alot these last few years with the storm and now the passing of a wonderful mother sister, wife and friend also my cousin. May God's strength be with all of you. Your cousin Bonnie
