We were in a prayer group together at ROOL. She was one of the sweetest ladies I've known. She would stop and give me a kiss and hug every time I saw her at Winn-Dixie. She will be in my prayers.

You have given a new meaning to our Easter, added a new joy, made the very holy day even more extraordinary. We can only smile through our tears at the thought of you entering heaven on the very day our Lord resurrected from the death he endured for us. Even as you left us, you presented us with this beautiful gift. Although we can't help but wish we still had you here with us, we rejoice in now knowing that you are with us at all times. Good job, mom, good job!
