God took your pain away and in doing so took you from us, but that is okay. You lived fully and lovingly and we were all blessed to have received that from you. Thank you. You are now with your father and with God watching over all of us. And from there you will still guide us in that loving manner as you always have. You will be missed.

To my sweet and loving grandmother, you are the most dearest and thoughtful lady I will ever know. You are the light to my candle and the flowers in my garden. I always saw you smiling no matter the pain. You mean the world to me and I hope to see you again in paradise. I love you to the moon and back. I miss you now and forever. You are my sunshine, my only sunshine.Love,Your "Waterlily"
