steve, a.k.a skoal, damn... what can I say? so many stories... I was the right guard and he was the left guard - playing football and in our early years, we worked out together, played together and grew up together. he dated my sister and was another brother to my younger brother mark. skoal, my brother, you will be missed by not only the Brunets, but your mom and dad who I also love and your kids. I wish our kids will have just half of the great experiences we had in becoming men. terry on my mother's behalf, she fed you, along with ricky, brett and david as many meals as she fed her own kids, and is saddened to hear of the loss of one of her livingston street boarders.

May you find comfort in the memories that are yours to cherish always, and strength in the companionship of those who share your loss.... I have learned never to underestimate the healing power we all have. It is always there to be used for the highest good. Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. (Matthew 5:4) May it be a source of inner strength to know that there's a loving God watching over you, and that, throughout this time of need, He'll stay close by your side. All those sleeping in their graves will wake up and sing for joy. As the sparkling dew refreshes the earth, so the Lord will revive those who have long been dead."-Isa. 26:19.
