I was so saddened at the news of your death, Michael. I did not know you well, but the few times that I met you and talked to you, I liked you and if Carol Jean loved you, then you must have been a wonderful person. Death is so final, or so we think, but maybe it isn't the end, but the beginning of a wonderful journey. My prayers and thoughts are with your family at this time and Michael, put in a good word for me!

You were my friend, my father figure, and the Patriarch of our family. May God Shed perpetual light upon you. All your success in life includes your biggest success, that being your wife of 25 years, my aunt Carol. You were always a team, a first class team.
