Your spiritual battle is now over, but I know that God saw the best in you when everyone else around could only see the worst in you. God was yours and you were His and it doesn't matter what you did because He ONLY saw you for who you were. You were loved, appreciated and you will be truly missed by those that knew the real A.D. Rest in peace my cousin until that day when we shall all stand at the feet of Jesus where there's no sunrise or sunset.
