My heart goes out to you, Jo Ann, and your family. I loved your mother very much. On our visits to New Orleans, we had such fun listening to her and your dad's stories of the Davis growing up in the French Quarter. And did you know that your mom was my "fairy godmother"? Making both my prom dress and wedding dress, she changed me into a princess twice in my life--although I know that you had a hand in it too, and thank you. I'm so glad that she was there all those years as a good friend to my mom over the years. My prayers are with you all, and I will stay in touch. Love, Steph
