We are sorry for your loss but praising God that Mr. Warren's race has been won. We did not know him well, but truly loved what few things we did know about him. He would share stories with us in Sunday School. I loved when he would eat his granola bar during church. He always made me smile. God bless your family. We were all blessed to be a part of such a wonderful person's life.

Dear sweet Mr. de Brueys will be missed by our department at Ochsner. He lived a long blessed life. Great men of the Bible who lived long blessed lives were considered to have God's favor. Now the Lord has called him home, and while he will be greatly missed, our hope is secure that we will see him again when we are called home. I pray Mr. de Brueys' family will have comfort and peace this season as they mourn his departure.
