Louis Dendinger

MAY 2, 1947 - NOV 30, 2009

Louis Robert Dendinger, current resident of Hammond, passed away in the early morning hours of November 30, 2009 in his home at the age of 62. Louis was a lifelong resident of the New Orleans area. He was born in New Orleans on May 2, 1947 and grew up in the 9th Ward until marrying and raising his family in the Covington area. He is survived by his wife, Kay Fallon, two children, Jerry Dendinger and Jennifer Patterson, and eight grandchildren. The grandchildren are Joshua, Christopher, Alex, Jonathan, Rebecca, Emily, Adam and Evan. Jerry and Mallory Dendinger currently reside in Lebanon, Ohio while Jennifer and Trey Patterson reside in Cumming, Georgia. Louis is also survived by his wife's family – daughter Caitlin, son Cassady and his wife Heather and their son Sebastian. He also leaves behind innumerable friends and family.

Louis is the son of the late Louis and Octavia Dendinger also of New Orleans. Louis is a graduate of Nicholls High School and the University of New Orleans. He served as an accountant and CPA for forty years serving clients all over the Northshore. His life was full and active. Louis was athletic all his life from baseball as a youth and then a competitive weight lifter (Olympic Lifts) through the 70's. In the 80's Louis became an avid runner competing in races all over the New Orleans area until the mid 90's when he had to limit his activity due to a knee replacement. Louis and friends annually ran in the Azalea Trail, Crescent City Classic and Turkey Day Run. The last 10 years of his life, consisted of frequent travel to visit grandchildren. He also traveled internationally on mission trips with son Jerry to Spain and Kenya. Louis and Kay started a new life within the world of Jazz music and dancing. Louis became an outstanding dancer that was admired by all who saw him.

The funeral service will be held on Friday, December 4th at E.J. Fielding Funeral Home on 21st Ave. in Covington. The viewing will begin at 10:00 a.m. with the Few people lived life so well. Lou's humor and love of life were infectious, it was impossible to be with him and not have a good time. Lou taught many of us to lighten up, but he also taught us about common decency and love of family. It was an honor to have known Lou and I will miss him greatly. My comfort is that he did live life fully and that he found so much happiness when he met Kay.

Kay, although I knew Louis for a relatively short time, he always made me feel like we had been life-long friends. I will truly miss his wit, wisdom, and sense of humor, and I feel lucky to have had the privilege of counting him among my circle of friends these past few years. None of our group trips will be the same without him and he will always hold a special place in my memories. But now it is Heaven's turn to enjoy his company. Please accept our deepest sympathy and our prayers that time will somehow begin to heal the pain and sense of loss.

Our Uncle Louie will always be remembered as a fun-loving, easy-going, kid at heart. He had many roles to play in our lives: uncle, friend, father figure, grandfather figure. When we think of him we think of the joy he took in life especially his love for his family, music and dancing I am so grateful that my Aunt Kay married him and that he became part of our lives. He always told me to make sure my family came first and to do things together. He will be missed everyday but I believe in my heart that he is having a ball and second lining in heaven.

Louis was a wonderful man and I was priviledged to know him as friend and stepfather for so many years. From the first time I met him, he welcomed me into his life with open arms and never treated me as anything less than daughter. He was the father of my heart. I can't imagine Jazz Fest without buying Louis a Crouchon de Lait po-boy for his birthday. The dance floor in the Economy Hall will never be the same. In fact, the very streets of New Orleans will be less bright without him dancing on them.

I first met Louis after Katrina when I was desperately trying to find commercial property north of I-12 in West St. Tammany. A lot of other people were doing the same, and prices were high. I was told that Louis had a property in Covington that he had planned to renovate as a residential rental, but could not do so because of zoning restrictions. I approached Louis and like the prince he was, he sold the building to me for exactly the money he had in it, not a penny of profit. He was generous, delightful, fun-loving and interesting, and I am fortunate to have known him.

Louis was a fantastic friend and wonderful family man. He would always make you laugh and embodied a spirit and character (unique to New Orleans) that every younger generation should emulate. Now, Louis is dancing on a more glorious stage. See you in due time once again, meu amigo!

Shannon told us often about her WONDERFUL Aunt Kay and Uncle Louis. Finally, last Mardi Gras, my husband and I had the honor of marching in their delightful Mardi Gras parade in the French Quarter. This was the pinnacle of Mardi Gras experiences. I knew that Shannon did not exaggerate about his lovely personality and character. My sincere condolences to his whole family. As we say in my religion (Judaism), may his memory be for a blessing.
