Eddie was the dearest friend I ever had, a sweet man who carried me through some really rough times. The fact that I met him ON THE JOB and we had such a sincere friendship seemed amazing. I evacuated from Katrina with Eddie and his family and I felt truly cared about. I think about Eddie every day.

Eddie and I worked together for many years at Burk, and then later at N-Y. Eddie was a good friend. We always joked about our weight. I haven't seen Eddie over the last several years, but thought of him. I was shocked to read of his parting. My sympathy to Laure and his children. He was very happy and proud of his family. He will be missed.
