Dear Shelley, Undoubtedly a parent can feel no greater loss than the passing of a child. From your earthly perspective it may seem that there is no gain from Garret's passing. But from a spiritual perspective you, Jim, Kelsey, Rhett and Charlayne have the blessing of being able to feel hope in situations that seem hopeless and know in those moments that the spark of hope you feel with you is Garret. And in turn he can pass that gift on to others. To be a spark of hope is a wonderful legacy to leave on this planet. We send all of our love and positive thoughts,

My sweet baby. This is the saddest time of my life. I don't know what I will do without you here. I know that Mamee and Pa have you now. I am so sorry that you did not get to experience a longer life with a wife and children. You would have been a great Dad. I want you back but I know that I will see you again. God had other plans for you. My heart has broken. I will think of you every day for the rest of my life. I love you so much baby. Mom

Dear Ms. Shelley and Mr. James, I am very deeply sorry for the loss of Garrett. I believe though, spiritually, he is still with all of us and is standing by each of our sides to make light of any situation that may bring discomfort, and will always be there for each of those who love him for the rest of our time. Garrett was one in a million, and a million and one. He will be greatly missed.
