My deepest condolences on the loss of your father and husband. Although it has been many years since Darren and I were friends, and too many years since I last saw Mr. Wayne, your family has always remained in my thoughts and prayers. Mr. Wayne will be sorely missed. I am sure he has a wonderful place in heaven too look after you all now. God Bless You All, Michele Moyer Pepperman and family

To Wayne's family, you have my deepest condolences. Wayne and I worked many years here at Norco. We used to refer to him as "Can Man". He got a kick out of that.
