Eric, The only words I have to help make this day less heartbreaking are; "Be thankful you had him around for 85 years". My Dad has been gone 2 years now but I got 88 years out of the old boy. Like your Dad sometime were tough, but they were all worth it and made us better for it.

May you find comfort in the memories that are yours to cherish always, and strength in the companionship of those who share your loss.... I have learned never to underestimate the healing power we all have. It is always there to be used for the highest good. Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. (Matthew 5:4) May it be a source of inner strength to know that there's a loving God watching over you, and that, throughout this time of need, He'll stay close by your side. All those sleeping in their graves will wake up and sing for joy. As the sparkling dew refreshes the earth, so the Lord will revive those who have long been dead."-Isa. 26:19.
