Harry, I still remember when you and Betty built your home down the street. She loved participating in the neighborhood get-togethers such as the Halloween hayrides. She was a wonderful, warm person and we will miss her greatly. Her spirit lives on in our memories. God be with you and her.

Mr. Harry, Ms. Betty will be missed by many, I can remember you at the Abita Rec. Center and coaching children, you and your wife have given many years to children in very special ways. My mother, Shirley Christian and Ms. Betty became friends and spent time playing cards until Ms. Betty's health became a problem for her. The girls will miss her greatly. Just remember Mr. Harry we all love you.
