Pinky, Georgia and Peggy, I am very sorry to hear about Mrs. Evelyn, she was a very sweet lady. I remember when I used to go to your house, between her and Pinky, you would never stop laughing, it was always a joy to visit there. It is a shame as we get older we loose touch, because you also loose time to visit with the people who were once a part of your life. If ya'll need anything, don't hesitate to call me, I know what ya'll are going through.

To my cousins, Billy, Peggy, Pinky and Georgie... My heart is broken to hear of the loss of your Mother. From the time I was a small child, I adored your Mother, and was always so happy to talk and laugh with her. What wonderful memories I will have of her. I will keep you all in my prayers. Much Love, Sandra Edwards-Burton Daughter of Amy Edwards
