Michael, it was so difficult saying goodbye to you and Nora in the hotel in Manchester in October. Thank goodness we were able to see Nora one last time. Your journeys "back home" have brought us so much pleasure. The first I remember in the early 1960's when I was about 10, was at Doncaster railway station. We gathered round a roaring fire in winter and Nora entertained us (and I think several nearby strangers!)with many stories. I also remember all the beautifully written letters Nora wrote to our father, which he delighted in sharing with us. Nora had a long and eventful life - quite a journey for a lass from Yorkshire. We will remember her with love and affection. We are thinking of you Michael. All our love from Barry, Linda and nephews Matthew and Jonathan

Nora and I go back as friends at least 65 years and I still remember even at school how lovely she was and how elegant I so wanted to be like her. Nora was still as lovely this year at the Golden wedding anniversary we celebrated with her and Michael. You will not be forgotten.

Michael, when Herbert and I first joined the Caledonian Society we realized that you and Nora were very special people and knowing you both through the years has been a delightful experience. She was so beautiful - both inside and out - that one could never forget her. We have missed seeing you two since we moved to the coast, but always enjoyed the times we got together for a "wee dram" or a meal. I look forward to the gathering in her memory.

Dear Michael and family, We loved Nora and will miss her. When Bob & I first joined the Caledonian Society and then the dance group Nora was there to help and welcome us. As our first SCD teacher we learned so much that is still evident today as we continue to enjoy the dance. Attending highland games, dancing at Jazz Fest, Longue, and just enjoying the company has brought us such joy and happiness. Michael and Catherine have always had Nora in their lives and have also said it won't be the same not to see her at Burn's Night or New Years Eve. Her friendship will be missed. Our love and deepest sympathy to all. Wendy, Bob, Michael, and Catherine Grubb
