Susan, Anne, John and Families, As you know Rosie was truly unique. Talented, vivacious, friendly and full of life her laughter and smile filled the room when she walked in. She embraced my children and grandchildren and they loved her. I'm so glad that our families knew each other. We are thankful that we were able to visit and spend the night with her in July. We treasured and loved her. May God grant each of you the peace that only he can give that you need at this time and in the weeks ahead. Cherish each other. Rose Mary now knows the answer to all questions. Love to all of you, Cheryl & Martin

May you find comfort and strength from family and friends. Be confident in the promised resurrection that lies ahead. Jesus Christ himself said: "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." John 5:28,29. My sincere condolences.

John, Susan, and Anne Your thoughts and prayers are with you. Rosemary was wonderful to my dad and I appreciate everything she did for him. Rosemary always had a kind thought for everyone and went out her way to help everyone. The one thing I remember the most is her cooking. She was the best cook. She most likely is in heaven right now cooking.
