Hello, I did not know Victoria but I was so touched by this I can't help but mourn over her. I went to a good friend of mine's grave the other day and I spoke with her, and I asked her to please help Victoria through her new journey, and to show her the ways of heaven. I also asked her to show Victoria how to let her family and friends know that she is OK and in a better place now, and to help them through this tough time. My prayers are with you all in this time of mourning over Victoria's death but remember after today from here on out she would want nothing more than for you all to celebrate her life.
