I want to express my sadness and sympathy over the loss of Dr. Gallo. My father John Bickers was his neighbor and friend at Christwood. I was so happy that my dad had another mentally acute man to socialize with in assisted living. They ate dinner together every night and they enjoyed each others company especially with both being doctors. It is sad they died about two weeks apart from each other, but I hope they are once more enjoying their friendship. Dr. Gallo was always so cheerful and friendly when I would see him. I know only too well now the pain of losing a dear and precious father. You are all in my prayers. Joan Bickers Dearing
