Eileen Deharo posted:

My deepest sympathies to the family on the death of Norman from myself personally and all of our members of AAUW. I knew him through his membership in the Covington-Mandeville branch. He was always outgoing and kind as well as knowledgeable about many subjects.

I met Norman in a covenant group at Christ Church...He was always thoughtful and kind...when I had some cancer surgery on my nose, he called to see how I was doing and sent cards.We could do with more of his kindness in this world. I wanted so much to attend the memorial, but was ill...May God hold you in His loving light as you pass thru your grief.Anne Blackmon

Please accept my family & I's most heartfelt sympathies for your loss. Our thoughts are with you and your family during this difficult time. I grew up 3 doors down from Mr. Norman since the age of 7. I will have always have many memories of him up until just last week. Will miss seeing my neighbor outside with his dog every morning & the cookies he would bring to my kids & I.
