Uncle Jim, You were the man that I most admired in my life; my god father and role model. You taught me to shoot and to drive. Your devilish sense of humor reflected your love of life. You and Aunt Teddy were a shining example of enduring love and I would like to think that you share some responsibility for my blessed marriage of over three decades. You showed me how to do it right. At the same time, you and your comrades saved the world, placing your life on the line countless times, in two wars, so that America would remain free and that the world would be safe from tyranny. You are, and will always be my hero. Say "Hi" to our dear Aunt Teddy and may God bless you. Semper Fi.
