Our condolences to Anne Trufant and Charles, Jr. and their families on the loss of their wonderful mother. We will always remember Ibsie and Charles as great friends and neighbors. They embraced us when we arrived in Covington 10 years ago and settled into Bogue Falaya Condominium where they lived. Ibsie was a special person who introduced us to her friends and we enjoyed their company on many occasions. When Ibsie moved to Brevard, North Carolina after Charles' death we kept in touch with her and always looked forward to her return visits. We will miss Ibsie and may God bless her.
