Rita, Nancy, and Bill, So sorry to hear of Mr. Bill's passing. Never have I known a kinder, forthright man. As I look back to my younger years, there are few men that I encountered that taught me the meaning of respect. He is surly one of those that always walked the walk. He truly left me with a lesson for life. I am truly saddened and will have you in my thoughts and prayers. Respectfully, Dale Burrell

I am always so scared of turning onto HWY 25 from River Road. I am always thankful to make it across. You don't know how many close calls I've had there over the years. I am so sorry to hear that you were taken home without a proper good-bye from your loved ones. That is why I always tell my friends..to make sure you treat everyone like it was the last time you see them alive. I know it was hard to know you died alone on the busy highway...may you rip your rewards in heaven. God Bless you and your family!
