Phyllis: I am truly sorry for your loss. I know from experience that nothing really prepares you for the loss of a loved one. Cherish the good memories and take comfort in knowing that he's now at peace with the Lord. May the Lord give you peace and please know that you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers.

Phyllis, you and your family have my and my family's most sincere and heartfelt condolences on the passing of Ron. You know that he was a great friend and neighbor of mine. We shared so many interesting and wonderful, humorous times together; the building of the catfish traps and all his woodworking projects, his landscaping events and working on his beautiful boat, along with playing with "Molly" the guard dog. My kids loved to visit to see what he was always working on. We all will truly miss him! Just always remember that Ron is not gone, but only continuing on his journey to be with our Lord and Savior, Jesus the Christ and our Holy Mother, Mary! What a fantastic time it will be for you to celebrate your eternal anniversary with him in the light of our Heavenly Father! We love you and will continue to pray for you and your family and for Ron's dear soul. Sincerely, Blake Boyles and Family - Julie, Brad, Bailey, Bryce, Briana and Brennan.
