Always opening her house to those who traveled through such as Boolie and I and all the family fun we had in the early years when we were first married..Easter wee-ends...a ham on the table and home made rolls and and not to forget the drive to the bakery to get homemade french bread and do-nuts. The last visit we had over a year ago and sitting on the screened in porch talking about family. Memories of our family times along with yours we will cherish until our last days...we love you Aunt Helen. Deborah and Boolie Adams
