Andy was a very thoughtful and caring man. I was working long hours and weekends trying to keep up with two shifts on a renovation project we had together. One Saturday morning my coffee pot quit working. There was no where open to buy coffee. The crew and myself were struggling. Andy heard of our dilemma. Minutes later he showed up with a brand new coffee pot, sugar, cream and cups. Andy was not working that day. What he did, he did for us. I truly am going to miss him.

Andy Hrivnak was my uncle. I think one memory that stands out is how he dropped everything to come to my father and then my mother's funerals. I remember that Uncle Andy and my husband, Jeff, met at my mother's funeral and ended up bonding. After my mother's funeral, we decided to start emailing each other. I enjoyed catching up with what he was doing and I hope he enjoyed reading about my life. We shared having poodles. I love the cards and gifts my Uncle Andy and Aunt Estelle always gave, and their telephone calls. I remember going to their wedding and the scissor pin they gave me, which I broke. Aunt Estelle - my love goes out to you always and my sympathies go out to you at this time.
