Jackie was very special. She treated everyone so very kind and made you feel welcomed - this she did when I first met her at the Covington Maintenance Unit after I started working with DOTD. When I visited her in the nursing home she lifted my spirits because she was so close to the LORD and so very positive when her health and circumstances were lacking. She was so very helpful to anyone who needed help - she was always helping other persons who lived in the nursing home. She is now in Heaven talking with her dear parents and Chuck and Anthony. Jackie was a beautiful person. I thank God for knowing her.
