She was the best grandmas any child could have she treated me no different than her own grandchildren she was good to me love me and spoiled me rotten always keep making me cakes and even got me a TV when I came on the weekend. Her and Pope never played in the house until I came to visit, she put me on the washing machine and they were spin around and I would sing to her as she would mix the cake. Put it in the oven and bacon then she have my Aunt take me out to ride horses and Pope and tell her now you can hang onto that Baby if they don't let her fall mama with the greatest grandmother never forget her
