Bob was a man of great strength, courage and integrity who always put honor first with never an agenda of his own. He did the right thing because it was the right thing to do. He was a man of great intellect and humility, and was so generous and kind. Not a day goes by without thinking of how very blessed I was to have him for my brother-in-law and how very much I miss him and his friendship and, of course, his cooking. I know he is with God and looking over his wonderful family, Liz, Matthew, Laura and Sam who he loved so much.

Liz, I just spoke to Mary and she told me about Bob's passing. I was very sad to hear the news and am extremely sorry for your loss. Mary and I have kept in touch over the years. She speaks so fondly of you and your family and how you have been such a wonderful mother and devoted wife. I have always admired you for your personal strength and tremendous work ethic. It is these attributes and faith in God that will assist you through your grief. You and your family will be kept in my prayers. Once again please accept my sincere condolences.
