I will always remember going to Homecoming dinner by myself in 9th grade, when Philip's sailboat broke down in the middle of Lake Pontchartrain! When he finally came running in, he was the missing piece of the puzzle that made the rest of the night perfect. Philip was a great friend, listener, and I am so glad that we got back in touch before God called him home. Rest in Peace, Philip -- you'll be greatly missed and remembered with a smile!

Saddened and at a loss for words upon hearing the news of your passing. You were an amazing father, son, boyfriend, and friend. You always made me laugh even though you and Casey made fun of me alot. I will miss that. I'm not sure why this happened but I know that God's in control of everything and we have to believe that there is a greater purpose in losing you. I was quite a bit older when my dad passed but I do understand the hurt that Cam and Abby are going thru. Desi was 5 when my dad passed so I've seen the emotions that can stem from losing someone so important at such a young age. They will always be in my thoughts and prayers as well as your parents and family. You truly were one of the most amazing people I have ever met and I'm lucky to call you my friend. RIP Philip... keep watch over us and protect us. Another angel gained his wings....
