I am so glad we got to spend time together at the recent "Grandparents Lunch." As we walked away from the school going our separate paths I looked back at you and thought, "He is a really nice man." Thank you for always taking the time to be so kind to me. We have shared our laughs, such as the hurricane spent in Lafayette, and shared sorrows, such as you comforting me during my recent loss. I will miss you, Milton.

Paw Paw I will miss you and miss all the fun things we did together. I will take care of Maa Maa. I will feed the birds and the squirrels like we use to do together. I will miss your eggs that you cooked for me and you watching me when I was sick. I know you are with Jesus and are feeling better. I hope that you got to see your mom and that she hugged you. I will LOVE you forever! LOVE Tabby
