Dear Mary and Family, We are high school friends of Jack and Melinda. I'm sorry that we never met. We have known Mike since he was a baby and know how much he meant to his parents so know how much he also meant to you. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you at this difficult time. Sincerely, Nancy and Jim Guseman

Our deepest sympathy to your family and especially to your parents as we have been friends for many years. Your father, Mike, was a high school classmate of ours and we have many special memories of them and their discussions of how special you were to them and to your many friends. We grieve with your family and many friends and believe that you are now in a better place. Through God all things are possible!
