Gerri, even though we never new your mother we pray for you and your family for the strength that God will give all of you to move forward with happy times. The Lord doesn't want us to grieve long for he has the right plan for your mother as she arrives with him. How magnificent! We all the Tourelle's care about your family and if there is anything you need please just ask. Sincerely, Denise

When your heart is empty, filling it with happy memories can help. It's hard to understand why people are taken from us, but find comfort in knowing you were a special part of a well-lived life. My heart cries for Frances, I am so sorry for your loss. I will carry her memories with me always. Santa

Dear Krohn Family: My sorrow for your loss is difficult to express. The loss of a parent, especially a mother is an experience that each of us has to deal with in our own way...the death of the heart and soul of the family...the one who gave us life. Her memory will live forever in your hearts. My condolences to you and all those who hold her dear to their hearts. Kind regards, Michele, Nicole & Danielle Brischetto

My condolences to the entire Krohn Family, especially to my long time neighbors Melvin, Linda, Amy and Stephen(neighbaaaaa)and my good friend Carl. I'm sorry for your loss; Ms. Francis was truly a great woman adored by anyone who met her. I'm sure her and Rowdy are holding the fort down until we finally get to see her again in Heaven for our next crawfish boil together. Melvin, don't forget your apron!! Love your neighbor and friend Neil Wayne Courtney

Mom, You are now resting in peace. The pain is over and a new kind of fun now starts for you. I am sure you are with our family and friends who preceded you in death. We will meet again one day and I look forward to seeing you then. I know you will look over your kids and grandchildren until the time comes for all of us to be together for eternity. I love you and will think about you everyday.
