NO! i've never heard that before, but it's crazy cool! if the guy didn't have a sorhetun drawl and his speech patterns drifted between english and spanish then he could be MY dad.

To the Lanning family-My condolences and prayers are with you at this time. Mr. Lanning was one of the classiest, kindest men I have ever met. His volunteer of time and other contributions to Woodland Presbyterian Church were always appreciated. He was also a great father and husband. God bless you.
